

Please leave our privacy law in Indiana as it is. It has worked exceedingly well. You should concentrate instead on the fact that these "intruders" are now beginning to solicit on our cell phones using minutes that are for private use and paid for at premium prices.